Reason for Change - Information

Our supplier of TFT displays, a vital component in these products, has announced that the TFT will be obsolete and phased out.

We have decided to not upgrade the product and products in XA family will go End of Production.

Production will be terminated for all products in CCpilot XA family. See list above.

We are now offering customers a Last-Time-Buy opportunity to secure remining demand of this products.

Last Time Buy is December 5, 2022.

Last Shipment Date from production will be December 10, 2023. After that date products can still be repaired in our Service department.
